

Common mistakes in Project 3 reports

- First: Lots of very impressive work and effort!
Well done!
- Repeating the same sentence in multiple places (e.g. abstract and conclusions)
- Changing verb tense (past \leftrightarrow present) in the middle of a paragraph
- Not writing complete sentences
- Forgetting to run a spell-check
- Forgetting to define math. notation
- Writing as if this was a course project (...)
E.g., don't refer to "the project", "the problem set", etc.
- Text in figures too small
- Missing punctuation after eqs.
- Forgetting to mention an abstract, figure, table or reference in the main text
- State all the key input numbers
- Stating numbers with too high precision
(too many significant digits)
